COMPELLED COSSACKS TO RETIRE

Mikado's Soldiers Stand Up Well Under the Severe Cross Fire—Story as Told by Czar's General Leaves All Honor with Russians.

(Compare address at 100000)

Washington, March 30.—The following report, made by Admiral Togo respecting the second attempt to bottle up the Port Arthur squadron, was received last night by the Japanese minister.

"About 3:30 a. m. of the 27th of March the 'bottling up' squadron, composed of four ships, escorted by a torpedo boat destroyer flotilla and torpedo boat flotilla, reached outside of Port Arthur, and without minding the searchlights of the enemy, steered straight toward the entrance of the harbor. At about two marine Jeagies from the entrance the 'bottling up' squadron was discovered by the enemy. Thereupon the shore batteries and guard ships showered hot fire upon the squadron, but in spite of the terrific fire the ships made their way into the inner roadstead, one after the other.

Russian advance south is improbable, as it would be dangerous, but the Russians may be able to delay the Japanese advance. There is a feeling of uncertainty here. Marquis Ito's sudden return is causing comment. The number of Japanese landed at Gensan was insignificant. Tonghaks at Hachen on March 20 attacked the Christians and Japanese. Five Koreans were killed and twenty wounded.

general believed to be beyond Umanji, but which he found to be in occupation of that town.

Praise for Japanese.

Despite a cross-fire which Gen. Mischchenko directed against the enemy, he pays a tribute to their tenacity and bravery, the Japanese only ceasing to fire after a combat which lasted for half an hour. Before the Russians could follow up their advantage three Japanese squadrons galloped toward the town, which two of them succeeded in entering, while the third was driven back in disorder, men and horses falling.

The fire maintained on the town was so destructive that the Japanese were unable to make an effective return.

Further Japanese reinforcements arrived an hour later, at in view of the superiority of the enemy Gen. Mischchenko determined to retire, doing so without embarrassment, although he carried with him three killed and sixteen wounded.

Gen. Mischchenko's Coscacks have been endeavoring for some days to come in contact with the Japanese patrols, but the latter refused the combat.

The skirmish will have the effect of encouraging the Russians to retard as much as possible the advance of the Japanese army.

Kourapatkin's Dispatch.

Gen. Kourapatkin's report is as follows:

"I have the honor to respectfully communicate to your majesty the report of Gen. Mischchenko, dated March 28, at 10 p. m., which says:

"For three consecutive days our small outposts attempted to draw the Japanese cavalry into action, but their patrols, after contact was established, retired beyond Chongju (about fifty miles northwest of Pingyang).

"Having learned that four squadrons of the enemy were posted five versts (about three and a third miles) beyond Chongju on March 27, six companies marched toward Kusan, and on March 28 reached Chongju at 10:30 a. m. As soon as our scouts approached the town the enemy opened fire from beyond the wall. Two squadrons promptly dismounted and occupied the heights, 600 yards distant. An engagement ensued.

"In the town a company of infantry and a squadron of cavalry were lying in ambush. Our men were reinforced by three companies and attacked the Japanese with a cross fire. Notwithstanding this, and our commanding position, the Japanese gallantly held their ground, and it was only after a fierce fight of half an hour's duration that the Japanese ceased fire and sought refuge in the houses. The Japanese hoisted the Red Cross flag at two points.

"Soon afterwards three squadrons of the enemy were seen advancing along the Kusan road at full gallop toward the town, which two of the squadrons succeeded in entering, while the third fell back in disorder under repeated volleys from our troops. A number of men and horses were seen to fall.

SOCIALISTS ARE

The German Colonial Proposition—Attack the Troops Going to West South Africa.

(Special by Scripps-Mellae.)
Berlin, March 30.—The departure of three hundred men as reinforcements to the troops now fighting the Rebel Hereros in German Southwest Africa, was the occasion of serious rioting. An anarchist mob, a thousand strong, molested the soldiers in the streets. The police charged the mob, repeatedly slashing them with swords. The mob re-formed and made for the Leharer station where the troops were to start. They tore down the iron barriers and destroyed the signal box and maltreated the railway employees and also tore up the rails. The police finally drove the rioters away after wounding many and arresting a number. The riot is causing considerable apprehension in official circles. It is taken as an indication of widespread discontent among the proletarian classes. They blame the socialist leaders in the Reichstag who have attacked the government's colonial policy.

The skirmish will have the effect of encouraging the Russians to retard as much as possible the advance of the Japanese army.

FAMILY HISTORY

Is a Sealed Book to the Boy Prisoner—Can't Say How Many Brothers He Has.

Johnny Condon is now sharing the county jail corridor with Walter Conroy who is to be taken to the Waukesha reformatory for chicken stealing. His brother, John Conroy, who is serving a sentence for drunkenness, Alton and several other prisoners who are also incarcerated for petty offenses. The boy's attitude is one of indifference. He seems not to be able to read and spends his time in desultory conversation with the other prisoners.

Weak on Family History
When asked today how many brothers and sisters he had Johnny could not say for certain. There were a lot of them and one little one, he knew, but as to whether it was a boy or a girl he did not know.

Visited by Parents
The father, James Condon, visited him today. When the jail door was opened he said "I am the boy's father" in a whisper and then indulged in a few remarks. Later in the day some of the other relatives called. Thus far no flowers have been sent.

OUTLINES PENSION
RULING FOR SENATE

Secretary Hitchcock Defines the Basis for Action by Bureau in Regard to the Age Limit.

Washington, March 30.—Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock, in a communication to the senate, gives it as his belief that it clearly was within the province of Pension Commissioners to issue his order of March 15 relative to pensions of Union soldiers, and further states that the additional cost to the government by reason of this order will not exceed $5,400,000.

"Disability, partial or complete, to perform manual labor is the sole measure of the right to a pension under this act of June 27, 1890," says the secretary. "The element of manual labor is fundamental."

Continuing, the secretary says: "The order in question merely lays down, as a convenient rule of decision and a rebuttable presumption of fact, that one who is otherwise entitled, and is 62 years of age, is partially disabled from earning a livelihood by his hands; that one who is 65 is more disabled for manual work; that one who is 68 is in a still greater degree incapable of earning a support by manual labor, and that one of 70 is completely disabled in this regard. Certainly such a presumption is justified by general experience in actual life."

FLOOD DAMAGES
REACH MILLIONS

Loss in Michigan and Indiana Mounts Each Day to Higher Figures.

MANY PERSONS FORFEIT LIVES

Reports Show That the Death List Is Being Increased--Five Victims in Michigan--Gas Plant Has Closed Down.

Chicago, March 30.—With bridges swept away, the level of rivers far above the danger point and still rising, gas mains flooded and still rising, plunging in darkness, and all interurban communication cut off, making the transmission of mails and supplies impossible, fresh horror was added Tuesday to the desperate situation in the inundated districts of Indiana and Michigan. Reports from the most seriously affected sections of the states indicated no abatement in the severity of the floods, which are causing incalculable damage through every river valley in the two states.

Another life was added to the flood's toll of death in Indiana when Joseph Dillon, superintendent of construction on the $70,000 bridge in course of erection at Mishawaka, was drowned in the swirling current of the St. Joseph river. Dillon was aboard the large manufacturing plant's have been forced to close. The electric light and power plant was in danger while it was feared that several of the city bridges would be carried away. Every possible precaution is being taken to prevent the breaking of the levees, which alone avert the complete inundation of the city.

Gas Supply Falls.
To the horror of the flood situation at Grand Rapids, Mich., was added the failure of the gas supply. As gas is extensively used for cooking and heating in the section of the city most seriously affected by the flood the suffering of the victims was greatly aggravated. Much apprehension is felt for the safety of hundreds of houses in the inundated sections of the city. Strenuous efforts are being made to dam up the subway beneath the Grand Trunk tracks on Turner street. This

Five Lives Are Lost.
Five lives lost and damage to property estimated at $5,000,000 is the result of the floods in Michigan.

Bloomfield, Ind., was absolutely cut off from the outside world by the collapse of the east span of the great bridge over the White river. This was the only passable bridge over the river for a distance of fifty miles. No mails or supplies have arrived at Bloomfield for five days, and the levee, which cost the city $40,000, has now been swept completely away, leaving the city at the mercy of the flood.

Situation at Vincennes.
In Indiana the greatest apprehension, however, is felt at Vincennes. Here all sanitary sewers have been stopped with mud bags. Nearly all of suicide is held responsible for the seriousness of the floods in the West Side district, as the embankment formerly served as a dyke.

River Falls Two Feet.
A drop of nearly two feet in the level of the Grand river enabled relief to be taken to a great part of the flooded section of the city without the aid of boats. The United States mail service was swamped with tons of mail.

Estimates of the havoc wrought by the floods throughout Michigan place the cost at a loss of five lives and a damage to property amounting to $5,000,000. It is believed that the worst that is to be expected from the floods now will be further damage on the low lying districts along the Saginaw river. The fact that much of the ice that has blocked the mouth of the Saginaw at Bay City has gone out is expected to relieve the situation.

Steamers Blown Up

The steamer Chiyu Maru, anchored at a position about half a cable from the Golden Hill, blew up itself and sank. The Fukui Maru passed a little ahead of the Chiyu Maru by its left side, and at the moment when she was lowering anchor was shot by a torpedo from the enemy's destroyers and sunk in that position. The Hachi-Hike Maru anchored to the left of the Fukui Maru and blew up itself and sank. The Yoneyama Maru, colliding with the stern of one of the enemy's torpedo boat destroyers, passed between the Chiyu Maru and Fukui Maru and anchored in the middle of the roadstead. At this moment the ship was shot by a torpedo from the enemy and consequently by the impetus of that torpedo she was carried toward the left side shore and sunk sideways.

"The result of the action being as above described, there is some space left yet between Hachi-Hike and Yoneyama Maru. It is a matter of regret that the result could not be completely closed up. The casualties were as follows:

"Killed—Commander Hirose, Takeo, one under officer and two sailors.

"Seriously wounded—Sub-Lieutenant Shimada.

"Slightly wounded—Lieutenant Masaki, Engineer Kurita and six sailors.

Japanese Sailors
The remainder were safely taken in by our torpedo boat destroyer flotilla and torpedo boat flotilla.

"Of the torpedo boat flotilla, the Aodaka and the Tsunabane, while escorting the 'bottling up' squadron and at about one mile from the entrance of Port Arthur, engaged in a fight with one destroyer of the enemy and inflicted serious damage on her.

"The enemy's ship retreated, raising an enormous column of steam as if her boiler was broken, when all the members of the 'bottling up' squadron had been taken in and our boats withdrew to the outside of the harbor, a ship, which appeared like one of the enemy's, was seen at the foot of the Golden Hill, utterly incapable of navigation.

"Although both our destroyer flotilla were subjected to terrific firing from the enemy until the dawn, not the slightest damage was done to any of the boats."

GEO. F. WEST.
Geo. F. West of La Fayette county is a candidate for the republican nomination of Secretary of State. Mr. West was born in La Fayette county in 1847. He lost a leg at the capture of Richmond. He is a staunch republican. For ten years his county honored him by electing him Clerk of the Court.
The Republican-Journal of Darlington, Wis., this week will say:
The Republican-Journal endorses without reservation the candidacy of Mr. West and rejoices because an opportunity has come to reunite the party and stamp out dissensions which in a very short time must have led to disaster.
Mr. West is a native son of La Fayette—let us make him her favorite son as well.
Mr. West's candidacy is in the interest of no one except himself. He will be against no candidate for any other position, and only for those who can and will aid him.
As there are 1008 delegates in the state convention it will be seen that La Fayette will furnish about one-hundredth part of them. Let the other portions of the state settle the other places. They will do it decisively, without our aid, but let us, as one man, do what best we can to aid the cause of a HOME CANDIDATE. The prospects for success are flattering. We have claims as a county which must be heard. The First Congressional district with its 112 votes has claims which must be respected, and from present appearances the district will be a unit for Mr. West.
We congratulate Mr. West upon the auspicious opening of his campaign and we congratulate those republicans who have united in signing the foregoing address. It means an end of factional strife and party dissensions in our county. It means that in the future we will dwell together in peace and unity and not in warring camps. And lastly it means that the republicans of La Fayette county will rally to the support of Mr. West with such unanimity and such singleness of purpose that the coming county convention will develop into an old-fashioned republican love feast.
The republicans of La Fayette county have issued a call liberally signed, urging Mr. West to become a candidate in the interests of harmony. The first district should be represented on the ticket and as Mr. West is first in the field he should be heartily endorsed.

AN INTERESTING INVESTIGATION
American people will have an opportunity to find out how conditions in this country appear to others, after that party of Japanese rich men complete their tour of the United States and submit their report on the condition of the poor and workings of the laws here, and whether religion enters to any appreciable extent into the actual daily life of the people.

Probably their report on the religious question will be in reality the more important of the three points. The Japanese nation occupies a remarkable position. It is busily engaged in assimilating whatever it can find of good in other countries and is ready to take up anything that seems better than it now possesses. This is as true of religion as of other matters and a report from these investigations to the effect that the Christian religion has a strong influence for good on the everyday life of the American people will undoubtedly do more for the Christianization of Japan than all the missionaries that have ever been sent to that land. It will be an unfortunate thing, indeed, for Christianity if it fails to stand the test which these so-called heathen propose to put it to.—Green Bay Gazette.
This is practical Christianity. What the world needs is civilizing, more than converting to any particular creed or faith. There is born in the breast of every man, be he heathen or Christian, a conscience which tells him to do the right. This is a part of his God given endowment.
The accident of birth may surround him with environments which do not recognize the God of Christian nations, but this does not bar him from worship, nor from a religion to which he is more loyal than many disciples of the Christian church.
The spirit which prompts him to faithfulness and devotion is the same spirit which influences his brothers in more enlightened nations.
He does not need converting to save his soul for he is living up to the best light which his surroundings permit, but he does need civilizing and the knowledge which comes with it, of a better way to live.
The Japanese party will discover as they tour the country that Christian progress and development go hand in hand, and they will be so favorably impressed with conditions that their report will have a wonderful influence on the nation.
The same would be true of Chinamen if they were treated like human beings in this Christian land, but there is no reason why a Chinaman should carry any thing out of the country but hatred for the people. It is a burlesque to talk about converting China, and then close our doors to disciples of the new faith, yet this is being done every day. America has much to learn in dealing with other nations along the lines of practical methods.
IT WOULD MEAN DEFEAT.
If the party in this State agrees with Governor Cummings and endorses his position, he ought to be chosen unequivocally and without compromise, and ought to be supported by a delegation of the same kind. But we firmly believe that if the National platform shall be made on the lines indicated by Governor Cummings in his inaugural address, the Republican party will be beaten at the polls and lose the Presidency. This is a strong statement, but it is the belief of thousands of the most conservative Republicans in the United States.—Des Moines Capital.
Governor Cummings is a disturbing element in the republican ranks in Iowa. He is a reformer of the impractical sort, with free trade tendencies, which are demoralizing to party interests and public welfare.
The state was unfortunate in electing him as its chief executive. He has a following because he appeals to prejudice and Iowa has always been able to furnish a good audience on any sort of reform schemes. It is to be hoped that the conservative element of the party may be able to control the governor. While the state is safely republican, it can not afford to go back on the principles of the party.
And now the state administration is accusing Mayor Grove of Madison by selling out the republican party by refusing to be a candidate for re-nomination. Madison is a democratic city, and Mr. Grove had sense enough to keep out of a fight which meant defeat when the governor's forces were against him.
Republican conventions have been held in a number of states, and of the 275 delegates elected, 212 are instructed by Roosevelt. That looks like a nomination by acclamation, and without opposition. Disaffected congressmen will do well to take notice.
If the democratic nomination should be tendered ex-president Cleveland on a silver platter, would he decline? quite doubtful, but the party will have no opportunity to try it this year.
The voters of the Fourth ward will make no mistake in voting for Fred Sheldon for alderman. He possesses intelligence and ability and will make a valuable member of the council.
The Third ward will maintain its old time republican majority by voting for Frank Jackman for alderman. Mr. Jackman belongs to the class of young progressive business men of the city and the party was fortunate in securing him as a candidate.
Last Saturday's issue of the Gazette 20 pages, was the largest paper ever issued in Janesville. The company was able to handle it, because of new machinery and modern equipment. The paper was a credit to the city as well as to the office.

PRESS COMMENT
Milwaukee Sentinel: The "convention" that is to be spring simultaneously with the call for the state convention must be a corker to justify the governor in ignoring all party precedents.
Birchwood Press: "I have given up looking for my ideal husband," said a Rice Lake maiden recently, "and am now looking for any plug of a man who can make an honest living."
Chicago Record-Herald: A California hotel company has had to pay a New York lady $35,000 for a leg which she lost in an elevator accident. The dispatch refers to it as a "limb." A leg that is worth $35,000 should be called a leg. To the low with limb.
Chicago News: Will some one who knows, if any one does, please explain why it is impolite to mention "hell" and not only polite but witty to speak of "what Sherman called war?"
Green Bay Gazette: Everybody hopes that the independent meat companies will pound the meat trust as hard as it is necessary to pound some of the steak that is dispensed by the combine.
Shawano Advocate: Mayor Rose and Governor La Follette are in the same class in their office seeking. Both "feel" that they should have another term that they may finish what they have begun. Both have done things that should never have been begun.
Grant County Herald: It grieves our soul exceedingly to learn that Buffalo Bill the idol of our boyish heart has applied for a divorce from his wife. We could have stood it to see almost anybody else apply for a divorce better than Bill. Oh Bill how could you o it?
Oshkosh Northwestern: The Shawano Journal wonders if it will require a petition to induce Governor La Follette to be a candidate for the United States senatorship. Now, indeed, not if the governor sees any chance for himself to grab the prize and get away with it.
Everett Herald: A non-union Spokane blacksmith has been refused a license by the state board of blacksmiths. The state board of tool-smiths has refused licenses to dentists who spend money for newspaper advertising. Bye and bye housewives will have to be fortified with certificates permitting them to go to market.
Milwaukee Free Press: Sir Edwin Arnold has the distinction of having written the only epic poem which achieved immediate and enduring popularity within the past thirty years. His "Light of Asia" was a favorite with the general public from the day of its first appearance, and its intrinsic merits are such as to guarantee its long life in the future.
Superior Telegram: Now the serious question is, did Mr. Cleveland invite a colored man to his wedding reception? If it shall be determined that he did, that certainly puts him ahead of President Roosevelt, who only asked a colored man to lunch with him. These are really serious questions and go to the safety of the government. Our reputable friends should see that all these questions are at once settled.

THINK ICE IS ON THE BOTTOM

AND IS IMPEDING FLOW OF ROCK RIVER.

THEORY OF HIGH WATER

Entertained by Men at Blodgett Mills—River Rose Over an Inch Since Yesterday.

Over at the Blodgett mills they have a theory as to the cause of the unusually high water in the river. It is believed that the ice which froze extraordinarily thick this year is now lying at the bottom of the river bed and that the stream is flowing over it. The river was low at the time of the cold weather and in the shallow parts was reported to have frozen to the bottom. There have been very few warm rains and little warm weather and the sudden and mysterious disappearance of the ice fields has not been satisfactorily explained.

Water On River Street
"The stream will have to go down about two feet before we can operate our elevators," was the statement made at the mills this morning. The water is already on River street and there are several large pools in the low places along that thoroughfare. The rise since yesterday amounted to something over an inch.

Work at the Dam
The Electric Co.'s crew at the dam is working strenuously to get the machinery in place in event the water comes over the walls. This latter contingency, however, is not anticipated, though the water is within about fourteen inches of the tops of the timbers about the structure.

GOLFERS PLAN TO FORM GLEE CLUB

Near Feature To Be Inaugurated at Sinissippi Links This Season—Ladies Played Yesterday.

Several of the golf enthusiasts had planned for a game this afternoon but it had to be postponed on account of the threatening weather. There were three ladies on the links yesterday and they reported that the grounds were dry and in excellent condition. J. P. Baker said this morning that tennis courts and putting-grounds, as well as a putting course would be placed in readiness as soon as possible. Rockford golfers are manifesting great enthusiasm over the proposal for a match game between fifteen of their lady players and a similar number from Janesville to be played at the Sinissippi links about June 1. It is likely that the whole day will be given over to the game. An effort is now being made to organize a glee club at the links. There are a number of splendid voices and Mr. Baker says that those who have been consulted on the matter have expressed their hearty approval of the plan. The club will start out this spring with a number of new members and no effort will be spared to make this the most enjoyable season in the history of the organization.

A CURIOSITY OF THE CIVIL WAR

Old Drafting Wheel, Containing the Names of Present Residents, Found in Putnam Home.

An old time drafting wheel used during civil war times to determine who were to serve their country at the front was found in the attic of the former Putnam residence on Prospect avenue this week by Mrs. J. J. Hall. Several tickets were discovered in the wheelbox and the first two remitted contained the names of John Watson and John Fitzgerald, two present well-known residents of the city. The wheel will be presented to the G. A. R. post.

SHOOTING DUCKS INSIDE THE CITY

DIRECT VIOLATION OF GAME LAWS EVERY DAY.

FOOL THE WARDEN EASILY

Many Hundreds of Birds Have Been Killed by Men Who Are Not Sportsmen.

Are the poor ducks to have no protection this spring? Are they to be slaughtered within the city limits of Janesville and the hunters escape investigation? Protected by law and this law only enforced by a corps of game wardens the poor half-starved birds are being shot down by pot hunters in warden slaughter as they are flying north to their feeding grounds. The birds are tough and not good for food, but it appears to be great fun for hunters, not sportsmen, to kill them as they seek an open strip of water after their long fly from the south. It is not sport it is slaughter.

Near the Island
In the upper river, near the island, there are thousands of weary ducks that have lit there in the past few days hoping for a little rest. They have had a hard fly from the south where they wintered and are tired. They have been met by volley after volley from the numerous guns that have dealt death to these poor creatures in direct violation of the state game law and the arduous work of the game wardens has been apparently been for naught. The same is true of the river in Monterey; only here the hunters are bolder and yesterday afternoon shot from a boat in the middle of the miniature lake while Game Warden Drafski drove frantically up and down the shores trying to get a boat to reach and arrest them.

Are Foxy
Perhaps it might be stated that the law-breaking hunters are foxy. They apparently know all the movements of the game wardens and when he is at the upper river they calmly shoot in the flooded districts of the lower dam. This morning a game warden hid himself in the old barn on the island and laid in wait for the shooters but they failed to come. Meanwhile they were having a jolly time in Monterey picking off the birds as they lit on the waters.

At Koshkonong
The same case is true at Lake Koshkonong according to reports only in a much more aggravated form. Here hundreds are being killed or no game wardens are ever in sight. Next fall the birds who escape the present slaughter will remember the lake and will fight shy of it and the shooting will be poor in consequence.

BARLOW'S MEN PARADE STREETS
Minstrel Organization Made a Good Impression This Noon—A Fine Band.

Barlow's minstrels paraded the streets of Janesville this noon and entertained the people with a fine musical concert at the Myers house corner. The band is one of the best that has been heard in the city for some time and the lively music attracted a large crowd of spectators. The uniforms were out of the ordinary, being a departure from the gaudy affairs usually worn by similar organizations. Favorable press notices have followed the entertainers in every city they have visited. The performance is said to be a clean wholesome meritorious one and a large audience will doubtless be present at the theatre tonight.

FARM BULLETINS ON APPLICATION
Dean Henry, of the University, Makes Offer to Agriculturists in the State.

The experiment station at Madison has recently issued two bulletins of interest to Wisconsin farmers. Bulletin No. 111, entitled "Oat Smut and Its Prevention," puts the loss during the last three years from oat smut in this state at $13,500,000. During this period the rural public schools have cost the taxpayers of the state $11,500,000. The bulletin gives full directions for treating seed oats to prevent loss from smut in a simple, inexpensive and thorough manner. Bulletin No. 112 treats of alfalfa in Wisconsin. It tells how to test the seed, how to secure a good stand of alfalfa and how to harvest and care for the crop. Both bulletins are illustrated. Copies of these bulletins will be sent to residents of Wisconsin, free of charge, upon receipt of postal card giving the address.

MAIL BUSINESS ON THE INCREASE

Both the Incoming and Outgoing Business Is Greater Than Usual at the Local Office.

Business at the local postoffice is now at its best and there has been a marked increase in the past few months. The outgoing mail is about all that can be conveniently handled. The clerks are kept busy at work canceling and throwing the many sacks delivered from the factory and large wholesale houses in the city. All the seedmen are busy sending out catalogues and packages are being shipped to all parts of the United States. The large Dry Goods houses in the city are sending out their spring price lists as well and this adds largely to the mail matter to be handled. The receipts have been unusually large for the past few months and the carriers are kept busy to make their trips in the allotted time. Little delay is experienced in the start from the office, but the mail is so heavy that it takes more than the usual time to complete the rounds. As yet there has been few times when this could be done, but it is about all that the men care to do in the time allowed them.

THIS PLEASING BUT DOUBTFUL TO KNOW
That Supervisors of Rock County Have Discovered Promoters of Hog Cholera, Writes Chippewa Co. Critic.

An critic of Rock county institutions has arisen in Chippewa county. His name is F. C. Habbitt and his home is in Boyd, Wis. He writes to County Clerk Starr, remonstrating against the crow bounty measure. He intimates that the theory that the big black fellows are instrumental in the spread of hog cholera is open to argument. "Do the crows attack it around in common grain sacks or do they use hand-baskets?" he asks, and follows up his inquiries thusly: "Did you folks consult with Prof. Henry before you passed that ordinance? It is pleasing but doubtful to know that the county board of Rock county has discovered the promoters of hog cholera."

WILLIAMSON PEN CO. INCORPORATES
With a Capital Stock of $10,000—Instrument Filed with Register.

Articles of incorporation of the Williamson Pen Co. were filed with the register of deeds yesterday. The capital stock is $10,000. G. H. Williamson, Edward V. Whitton, and A. C. Pond are the incorporators.

MR. TRIPP MADE UNIQUE FRAME
Of Four Varieties of Wood for Judge Luse's picture—To Be Hung at Town of Rock Headquarters.

W. H. Tripp of the town of Rock who has voted the whig and republican tickets since 1840 has made a very unique and handsome frame for the picture of Judge Luse which is to adorn the headquarters at the town of Rock caucus Saturday evening. Georgia pine, mahogany, birdseye maple, and butternut, are used in the construction. A similar frame made by Mr. Tripp is on exhibition at the Baensch headquarters in Madison. The latter says that he is in the "B" business—beets, berries, and Baensch, with another for Babcock had he lived in the third district. The only "B" he does not approve of is the one that stands for little "Boh."

A BED IN FLAMES AT J. P. WRIGHT'S HOME

Fire Broke Out Monday Night While Miss Edna Wright Was Entertaining Party of Friends.

While a small party of friends was being entertained at the home of John P. Wright on Division street Monday evening the clothing on one of the beds in the house became ignited in some inexplicable manner. The guests organized themselves into volunteer firemen and put out the flames without calling the department. The damage amounted to about $30.

The machine shop of A. L. Gordon was totally destroyed by fire on Tuesday, the loss being about $2,000. R. R. Richey and family have removed from Mt. Horeb and taken up their residence at 117 North Academy street.

RUSSIANS THREATEN TO MASSACRE JEWS

Proclamation Declare the Persecuted People Are the Real Cause of War in the Far East.

Berlin, March 30.—A dispatch from Odessa says the Jews in southern Russia are in a state bordering on panic over the report that the Russians have planned another massacre of Jews on Easter Sunday.

The population of Odessa is greatly excited. Many proclamations have been issued against the Jews, inciting the populace to murder and plunder.

It is learned from reliable sources that the chief anti-Semite paper published in St. Petersburg is being distributed free of charge, and that anti-Semite speakers have gone to Odessa to make speeches, in which they will declare that the Jews are the real cause of the Russo-Japanese war and that they sympathize with the Japanese victories.

A deputation of the Jews asked the governor for protection. He told them that unless they ceased to be Japanese in their souls he would leave them defenseless.

There are 200,000 Jews living in Odessa. The poorer classes are in a condition of panic.

ATTEMPT TO LYNCH PRISONER

Residents of Lanesboro, Minn., Infuriated by Assault Upon Child.

La Crosse, Wis., March 30.—As the result of an alleged assault by Charles Powers, a Milwaukee road brakeman, upon Lucz Drake, aged 10 years, of Lanesboro, Fillmore county, Minn., a mob of 100 infuriated citizens stormed the village jail in an attempt to drag forth and lynch the prisoner. The mob was repulsed by Marshal Galligan and a band of armed deputies. The girl is reported to be in a dying condition. Powers had a preliminary hearing in jail and was bound to the circuit court without bail by Justice Sackett.

ALDERMAN CONFESSES TO ACCEPTING BRIBE

John Gaster of Kenosha Admits Receiving Money to Aid in Passing Franchise for Railroad.

Kenosha, Wis., March 30.—The famous bribery case came to a sudden close here when former Alderman John Gaster surprised the occupants of the circuit court room by pleading guilty to the charge of accepting a bribe in connection with the passage of an ordinance granting a franchise for a street railway some two years ago to Gustav L. Clausen and Patrick Haynes of Chicago.

Gaster took the witness stand and acknowledged receiving $333 from Gustav L. Clausen. He also connected five other aldermen with the deal and told how the money was distributed. His confession implicates Albert Smith, Peter Piersch, Christian Welter, John Seeborn, M. J. Scholty and several others. These men are all business men and it is thought warrants will be taken out. Gaster was fined $200 and $100 for costs.

DALE & GOUGH, Proprietors.

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS. FEATHERS

We are agents for the "SANITARY" brand of FEATHERS.

FOUR REASONS

why "Sanitary" Brand Feathers are Superior to All Others:

1. "The Sanitary Purifying Process" removes from 5 to 10 pounds of carrion matter, filth and oily refuse, natural to the living goose, from each 100 pounds of feathers. All other methods as yet have failed to relieve feathers entirely of such impurities.
2. Feathers treated by our "Sanitary Process" are not subject to the excessive and ruinous heat employed in the ordinary steam curing process; hence they retain their natural elasticity and are much more durable, and will not break from dust while in use.
3. Three pounds of feathers treated by our "Sanitary" Process have the same filling capacity as 3½ pounds treated by any other method—a clear gain of about 15 per cent in bulk to the consumer.
4. "Sanitary" Brand Feathers and Pillows are guaranteed to be permanently odorless, healthful—in fact, in perfect sanitary condition. THEY COST NO MORE THAN ORDINARILY CURED GOODS

We carry two grades of FEATHERS at 75c and 85c a pound, in 1, 2½ and 5-lb. sacks.—See the grades in our display Case.
